

ALPINE DROUGHT OBSERVATORY

Project ADO aims to create an online drought monitoring platform and develop policy implementation guidelines for proactive drought management in the Alpine Space region, to improve: the understanding of drought impacts in the Alps, the current drought monitoring and forecasting capabilities, and the current drought management practices and drought preparedness.

